Galleria Arriba, Abiquiu Inn

The Abiquiu Inn proudly presents the New Mexico Potters and Clay Artists annual Celebration of Clay exhibition in their Galleria Arriba. This show is one of richness and diversity with techniques and approaches that are as varied as they are surprising. When you roll all that up in a trip to the immensely charming and beautiful Abiquiu area and you can't help but be enchanted. There is also a lovely café at the Inn to tempt you further. If you are weary of the common and of the expected and in need of a visual feast then this show in this place is just the ticket. Don't miss seeing this exhibit, either in person or online at celebrationofclay.com.

Location: Abiquiu Inn, 21120 US 84, Abiquiu, New Mexico
